

October 21, 2009

For more information, contact:
Barbara Yeager
Director of Operations
(317) 269-6274 ext. 12
byeager@pppnet.org
www.pppnet.org

The Partnership for Philanthropic Planning joins Synergy Summit
PPP welcomed to group representing major financial and legal services organizations

The Partnership for Philanthropic Planning (PPP) has become a member of the Synergy Summit, an umbrella organization whose delegates represent the leadership of the major legal, accounting, and financial service organizations in the country. In addition to PPP, Synergy Summit's member organizations include:

American Association of Attorney - Certified Public Accountants

American Bar Association - Real Property, Trust and Estate Law

American Bar Association - Tax Section \(Estate and Gift Tax Committee\)

American Institute of Certified Public Accountants

Society of Financial Service Professionals

National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys

National Association of Estate Planners and Councils

Together, these groups represent more than 200,000 lawyers, accountants, financial advisors, philanthropic gift planners, and insurance and other professionals.

PPP President and CEO Tanya Howe Johnson said the invitation to membership in the Synergy Summit is a direct result of the spirit of collaboration fostered by the brand and mission of the Partnership for Philanthropic Planning.

"The Synergy Summit provides a forum for the leaders of these constituent groups to build productive relationships and collaborations that better serve their organization's members and the public. By working collaboratively with these professional organizations PPP hopes to help create models of philanthropic planning partnership that help donors make the most meaningful charitable gifts.”

Information about the Synergy Summit and its constituent organizations is available on its web site at www.SynergyPro.org.

The Partnership for Philanthropic Planning (formerly the National Committee on Planned Giving) is a 501(c)(3) public charity whose mission is to help people and organizations create charitable giving experiences that are the most meaningful in achieving both charitable mission and the philanthropic, financial, family and personal goals of the donor.

The Partnership achieves its mission through research, education, advocacy, community dialogue and the setting of standards and best practices in philanthropic planning. The Partnership strives to engage all constituents in the charitable gift planning process: nonprofit planned giving and major gifts professionals, nonprofit managers and trustees, financial and estate planners, trust managers and administrators.

The Partnership for Philanthropic Planning is supported by 128 local councils and over 8,000 individual and council members, as well as charities, associations, and business organizations that support the mission of charitable giving made most meaningful.